Constitution

CONSTITUTION – ARTICLE 1

Organization

This organization shall be known as the: National Internal Affairs Investigators Association, Incorporated NIAIA, Inc.

CONSTITUTION – ARTICLE 2

Objective

The objective of the National Internal Affairs Investigators Association, Inc. shall be to:

I. Develop and establish professional performance standards and instill the importance of ethical behavior and integrity to those involved in administrative and/or internal affairs investigations;

II. Provide specialized training in the area of employment law and administrative investigations unique to public safety organizations;

III. Present a forum for the discussion of common problems and current court decisions in the field of personnel management;

IV. Gather and disseminate information regarding improved administrative and technical practices;

V. Assist public safety agencies in the establishment and development of internal affairs and administrative investigative units;

VI. Foster cooperation and the exchange of information and experience among administrative/internal affairs investigators;

VII. Enhance professional growth and development.

CONSTITUTION – ARTICLE 3

Membership

I. Non discrimination

No person shall be denied membership because of race, sex, creed, color, religion, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation.

II. Categories of Membership and Eligibility

All membership applications are subject to approval by the Executive Board. Membership in this Association shall consist of three categories: Agency, Retiree, and Honorary.

A. Agency Membership

Agency Memberships shall consist of any municipal, county, state, or federal public safety agency or government entity, as well as private industry corporations or other supportive entities who have personnel responsible for or are involved in conducting, supporting or providing training in the field of administrative investigations and disciplinary processes. Any agency employee actively involved with the above mentioned criteria/processes may have individual user accounts on the website as part of their Agency Membership. Annual dues and voting ability with restrictions apply.

B. Retiree Membership

Retiree Membership may be considered for any individual who has retired, in good standing, from an agency/entity described above, and whose duties/role met the criteria for Agency Membership. Annual dues and voting ability applies.

C. Honorary Membership

Honorary Membership may be granted to a person who has contributed substantially to the improvement and advancement of the Association and has separated in good standing from an agency and position meeting the above mentioned criteria for Agency Membership.

Nominations for Honorary Membership will be reviewed and approved/denied by the Executive Board. Annual dues are waived for life and voting ability applies.

CONSTITUTION – ARTICLE 4

Dues

I. Authority

II. Period Annual membership dues are valid for a calendar year, January 1 to December 31. The memberships for agencies/retirees who join between the conference date and the end of the year will not expire until the end of the following year. They are granted membership for the remaining days of the current year at no additional cost.

III. Changes in Dues

Any change in cost of dues for the new calendar year will take effect at the end of the conference.

IV. Payment

Association members shall make payment of annual dues through the Association's website or through other coordination with the Treasurer.

CONSTITUTION – ARTICLE 5

Elected/Appointed Officers

I. Elections will be conducted at the annual conference as needed for available positions on the Executive Board, except for Treasurer. Newly elected officers shall assume their roles at the conclusion of the conference.

II. The Executive Board shall appoint a Treasurer. Potential candidates will be vetted by the Executive Board. Upon selecting a candidate, the Executive Board will appoint the individual for a minimum of three (3) years. III. The elected/appointed officers of the Association must be active members from one (1) of the three (3) membership categories as outlined in the Constitution, Article 3, Section II.

IV. The term of office for any elected officer will be a minimum of two (2) years. The term of office for any elected officer may be extended upon approval of the Executive Board, as long as the officer's performance and conduct meets the expectations of the Executive Board.

V. Vacancies on the Executive Board will be announced on the website without delay, and at the beginning of the conference. A. Members who are interested in running for a vacant, elected position will notify an Executive Board member as soon as reasonably possible, and no later than the end of session on the third day of the conference.

B. Members who are interested in an open Treasurer appointment will notify a member of the Executive Board without delay and will provide written proof of experience and knowledge upon request. Such position will be filled upon approval of the Executive Board.

VI. If a vacancy occurs in the Office of President during the term of office, the Vice President will assume the role of interim President until a special meeting of the Executive Board can be convened.

A. At the special meeting, the interim President has first option to fill the role of President. If the interim President chooses not to fill the role of President, that position becomes open to existing Executive Board members.

1. If only one Executive Board member expresses interest, the Executive Board will confirm the change to the new role.

2. If multiple Executive Board members express interest, the Executive Board will, after discussion, vote to appoint one of them to the role of President.

3. If no Executive Board members express interest, the interim President remains in that role until the election at the next annual conference.

4. Any other vacancies created by this process will be addressed as outlined below in Section VII.

VII. If a vacancy occurs in any other office, the Executive Board will convene to discuss the vacancy. Existing Executive Board members have the option to petition to assume the vacant position.

A. If only one Executive Board member expresses interest, the Executive Board will confirm the change to the new role.

B. If multiple Executive Board members express interest, the Executive Board will, after discussion, vote to appoint one of them to the role. Any remaining vacancies will be filled by election at the next annual conference.

VIII. A vacancy for purposes of this Article is when:

A. An elected officer notifies the Executive Board that he/she is unable to complete the term of office.

B. An elected officer dies.

C. An elected officer, by majority vote from the Executive Board, is determined to be incapable of completing the term of office because of:

1. medical reasons;
2. gross negligence or inefficiencies as an Executive Board member;

3. work-related suspension or termination due to performance or conduct;

4. or separation from his/her place of employment, conviction of a serious misdemeanor or any felony; or,

5. other just cause.

D. An Executive Board member is confirmed to a new role as outlined in the Constitution, Article 5, Sections VI-VII.

CONSTITUTION – ARTICLE 6

Changes to the Constitution and/or Bylaws

I. Permissible Changes

The Constitution and Bylaws may be amended, repealed, or suspended.

II. Adoption of Changes

The Constitution and Bylaws may be changed only by a majority of voting members in attendance at the general business meeting. Only one (1) vote may be cast per Agency Membership.

CONSTITUTION – ARTICLE 7

Organization Disbandment

In the event of dissolution of the Association, the Executive Board shall, after paying or making provision for the payments of the liabilities of the Association, give all monies to a non-profit public safety related organization with like or similar purposes. Association money shall not be given to or used for the benefit of any individual.
